Come Back Home Again

RECREATION.

Aultman Farmhouse Park - The 180-acre site of the 1797 farmhouse, barn, and smokehouse designed by Joseph Smith, noted on the National Register of Historic Places, is a nice place to relax and enjoy the countryside.

Bloomfield Community Park - This 30-acre park includes a playground, a pavilion, basketball courts, soccer fields, a baseball field, and a walking trail.

Come Back Home Again

Guhfl Universal Heritage & Arts Center - Located in the 1885 building that housed the Bloomfield Public Library and the Bloomfield High School, the Center features exhibits on the history of Bloomfield.

Hinton Park - This 65-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Hinchman Park - This 15-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Jonesville City Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Linton Commercial Historic District - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic district includes a variety of buildings, including the Old Iron Bridge, the Scotland Hotel, and the Old Cigar Barn.

Lyons Community Building - This 20,000-square-foot building includes a gymnasium, a meeting room, and a community kitchen.

Lyons Park - This 60-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

McKee Stadium - Home of the Linton High School Lancers, the stadium includes a football field, a baseball field, a softball field, and a track.

Memorial Park - This 20-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Monroe Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Pleasant Grove Farms - This 1,000-acre farm includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Richland-Plummer Creek Covered Bridge - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic covered bridge is a popular destination for hikers and bikers.

Scotland Hotel - Built in 1879 by William H. Haig, this two-story Italianate frame structure is a popular destination for tourists.

Shawnee Summer Theatre - Located in the heart of Bloomfield, the theatre includes a stage, a seating area, and a parking lot.

The Cross Cut Canal - Located between Bloomfield and Williamsburg, this canal was used to transport coal from the mines to the railroads.

The Cross Cut Canal - Located between Bloomfield and Williamsburg, this canal was used to transport coal from the mines to the railroads.

Toledo - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this small town is a popular destination for tourists.

Triborough Bridge - This 100-year-old bridge is a popular destination for hikers and bikers.

Trolley Tracks - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic trolley track is a popular destination for tourists.

Turner Farm Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Union Area - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Visiting Angels - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this home health care agency is a popular destination for tourists.

Vonature - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this nature center is a popular destination for tourists.

War Eagle Park - This 20-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Wolf's Den Park - This 50-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Woodford Park - This 15-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

INNOCENT

Aultman Farmhouse Park - The 180-acre site of the 1797 farmhouse, barn, and smokehouse designed by Joseph Smith, noted on the National Register of Historic Places, is a nice place to relax and enjoy the countryside.

Bloomfield Community Park - This 30-acre park includes a playground, a pavilion, basketball courts, soccer fields, a baseball field, and a walking trail.

Come Back Home Again

Guhfl Universal Heritage & Arts Center - Located in the 1885 building that housed the Bloomfield Public Library and the Bloomfield High School, the Center features exhibits on the history of Bloomfield.

Hinton Park - This 65-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Hinchman Park - This 15-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Jonesville City Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Linton Commercial Historic District - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic district includes a variety of buildings, including the Old Iron Bridge, the Scotland Hotel, and the Old Cigar Barn.

Lyons Community Building - This 20,000-square-foot building includes a gymnasium, a meeting room, and a community kitchen.

Lyons Park - This 60-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

McKee Stadium - Home of the Linton High School Lancers, the stadium includes a football field, a baseball field, a softball field, and a track.

Memorial Park - This 20-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Monroe Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Pleasant Grove Farms - This 1,000-acre farm includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Richland-Plummer Creek Covered Bridge - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic covered bridge is a popular destination for hikers and bikers.

Scotland Hotel - Built in 1879 by William H. Haig, this two-story Italianate frame structure is a popular destination for tourists.

Shawnee Summer Theatre - Located in the heart of Bloomfield, the theatre includes a stage, a seating area, and a parking lot.

The Cross Cut Canal - Located between Bloomfield and Williamsburg, this canal was used to transport coal from the mines to the railroads.

The Cross Cut Canal - Located between Bloomfield and Williamsburg, this canal was used to transport coal from the mines to the railroads.

Toledo - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this small town is a popular destination for tourists.

Triborough Bridge - This 100-year-old bridge is a popular destination for hikers and bikers.

Trolley Tracks - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this historic trolley track is a popular destination for tourists.

Turner Farm Park - This 10-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Union Area - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Visiting Angels - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this home health care agency is a popular destination for tourists.

Vonature - Located just 1 mile north of Linton, this nature center is a popular destination for tourists.

War Eagle Park - This 20-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Wolf's Den Park - This 50-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

Woodford Park - This 15-acre park includes a playground, a soccer field, a baseball field, a basketball court, and a walking trail.

VISIT

Just a short drive from everywhere, our central Midwest location offers quick one-tank drives for the whole family. Located on the banks of the Ohio River, Indiana, Greene County is a short drive from the Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Louisville Metro Areas.

Whether you prefer the outdoors, a historic city, unique museums, points of interest and fun, quick vacation, or a hometown atmosphere will keep you coming back for more.

Visit Greene County and…

Come Back Home Again